Questions	Answers

Not-for-profit private organisations; IV. International organisations acting under national law. All of them must be based in the Atlantic Area Programme eligible area.

Can one partner coordinate more than one proposal?	Yes, it is possible.
Is it necessary to register 'Associated partners' on the SIGI?	Yes, it is necessary.

3) Budget

Questions	Answers
How about financing? Will there be any there pre-financing?	No.
What about their own funding. The 25% still work?	The maximum of ERDF granted remains 75%. 25% remains the national counterpart (to be provided by the partner).
What about partners from outside eligible area or outside the EU?	For those partners, ERDF co-financing will also amount to 75% and an agreement must be signed with the national authorities concerned.
How can the co-financing of 25% be provided by the beneficiary?	The co-financing can either be provided through its own resources or through other schemes that might be set up at the national, regional or local level. This means that the 25% financing can be covered by funding received from the national, regional or local level, if there is such a possibility. However, it is important to note that the programme only reimburses costs incurred and paid by the beneficiaries. This means that each beneficiary must fully pre-finance its project expenditure. Then, once verified by the controller and included in a joint (consolidated) progress report, the Programme reimburses 75% (ERDF). The sum of the ERDF and co-financing received by a beneficiary can never exceed 100% of the costs occurred for the concerned item(s).
Can Associate partners be paid by projects partners for travel and accommodation on their participation in project activities?	For this specific call, project's full partners will be able to claim associated partners' expenditures under travel and accommodation line (none any other) if invited to attend events/meetings.
Is the 60% limit applied to the Human resources budget?	No limit was established, however, it is recommended not to exceed 60%.
Preparation costs	The preparation costs are a lump sum corresponding to € 17,480, and it is mandatory to request (automatically assumed by SIGI). The amount can be shared between all project's partners in proportion to their participation in the preparation.
Can partners choose different options for staff costs?	Within the same project, each partner can choose between direct costs or a flat rate option for the staff costs. Once an option is chosen, it cannot be changed during the project implementation.

Can partners choose real costs reimbursement instead of the fixed flat rate of 15% of eligible staff costs for Travel and accommodation?	Real costs are allowed only when the partner chooses the flat rate of 20% for staff costs or in case the flat rate is not appropriate for the partner (duly justified).
Will the 15% flat rate of travel costs be calculated on the result of the 20% flat rate of staff costs (and travel costs are not taken into account in the calculation of staff costs)?	Regarding the calculation of travel costs, as shown when filling out the application, by choosing 20% flat rate p/Staff, the travel values are real costs.

4) Workplan

Questions	Answers
How many work packages can be foreseen in the application form?	It is recommended to foresee 4 WPs. Only in well justified cases up to 5 WPs. WP0 does not count. Within the WP, no more than 4 activities are allowed.
Which work packages are compulsory?	Only WP 0 – Preparation – is compulsory. Thematic work packages should be used exclusively. Management and Communication are not considered as work packages but imbibed in the thematic ones.
How to allocate the activities and budget related to project management and communication to the single work packages?	As regards the activities related to project management and communication, these shall be described in the application form. Concerning the budget allocation, there is no splitting of the total budget to the single work packages foreseen. Consequently, the budget related to project management and communication needs to be allocated to the respective cost categories and reporting periods only.

What is the difference between an output and a deliverable?	Outputs are products delivered by the partnership as a result of the activities conducted during the project implementation. They must answer the needs of the target groups and, at the same time, demonstrate durability and transferability beyond the project partnership. Equally important is the fact that project outputs should be measurable and contribute to the programme output indicators. On the other hand, a project deliverable is a side product that contributes to the development of an activity whose purpose is to support the completion of an output, either on its own or in combination with other activities. Each activity should include one or more deliverables (e.g. analysis report, feasibility study, etc.) that contribute to the achievement of project outputs. All small steps of a single activity, such as stakeholder meeting documentation, working groups, etc., do not need to be listed as separate deliverables but should be aggregated into one deliverable, e.g. a qualitative report describing the stakeholder involvement.
